The Ontario Varsity Football League (OVFL) Is Proud to Welcome Back Former Members

Cornwall, ON – The Ontario Varsity Football League (OVFL) is proud to welcome back two former members – Waterloo Region Predators (formally Twin Cities) and the North Bay Jr. Bulldogs.

Waterloo Region was established over 20 years ago and has offered an unparalleled football experience to the area. Being affiliated with both cities of Kitchener and Waterloo brings support that enhances the overall participation.

Having won several championships, Waterloo Region looks to build upon its success as a returning member of the OVFL.

North Bay Jr. Bulldogs returns to the OVFL after several seasons in the OMFL. North Bay Football Club dates its roots back to 1952. A program on the rise, with a dedicated volunteer base and tremendous community support.

The entire city of North Bay looks forward to participating in Ontario's premier football league and all the challenges that it brings.

The entire OVFL membership welcomes its two returning members.

About the OVFL: Established 20 years ago to provide the highest level of football in Ontario. Consists of 11 associations and over 1,500 players. Has graduated more players to the CIS, NCAA, CFL and NFL than any other football league.
